

JESUS' LIFE PERFECTLY MODELS GOD'S WISDOM FOR US

PROVERBS 8:1-36, 1 CORINTHIANS 1:26-31 (ESV)

- I. Wisdom comes _____.
- A. Wisdom was an attribute of God before _____ existed.
 - B. This wisdom—like all God's attributes—is _____ by all three persons of the Godhead.
 - C. Wisdom is an attribute of God that _____ be shared with _____ beings.
- II. Wisdom is _____ to Creation.
- A. God baked wisdom into Creation to give it _____ and _____.
 - B. The wisdom inherent in Creation—and indeed Creation itself—is aimed at and geared toward human _____ and _____.
- III. In light of these things, we should desire to discover God's wisdom and _____ our _____ to it.
- A. Wisdom is _____ to those who seek it.
 - B. When you know the truth of wisdom, it _____ you.
 - C. When you live a wise life, it _____ you.

D. Wisdom and its benefits aren't only true for _____ (vss. 15-16); they're also for _____ people (vss. 17-21, 35).

IV. Jesus' life _____ God's wisdom for all of us, high and low.

A. _____ on the life of Jesus to see God's wisdom in real-time.

B. _____ in the _____ of Jesus' life.

C. Seek to _____ your life to Jesus.

D. The _____ between Jesus' life and ours urges us to _____ the message He taught, through which God's Holy Spirit _____ us to be like Jesus.