

A WISE PERSON TRUSTS GOD

PROVERBS 9:1-18, LUKE 6:46-49 (ESV)

- I. Choose _____ over _____, if you want life.
- A. There are three kinds of people in this world: the _____-minded, the wise, and scoffing _____.
 - B. The simple-minded and the wise still have a chance to _____, but fools do not!
 - C. Simple-minded people still have the opportunity to receive wisdom's bounty and live. If they do not, they will _____ (even unintentionally) into foolishness and _____.
 - D. Wise people have the remarkable opportunity to continue learning from the _____ of wisdom, so that you become wiser, more righteous, and more learned
- II. The difference between these three people is not _____, but _____.
- A. Anyone can know and even _____ God's wisdom.
 - B. Only a person who knows God covenantally will (1) _____ God's words (2) so that they _____ them.
 - C. Trust is the dividing line between _____ and _____ what God says.
