GROANING HEARTS MADE GRATEFUL

1 CORINTHIANS 15:54-57 (ESV)

I. The Christian's hope for eventual resurrection is something you must _____ and believe firmly to endure the _____ of this life.

   A. At the resurrection, God will give us _____over sin, the Law, and death through Jesus.

   B. That day will be a moment of celebration and _____ unlike any we've ever experienced.

   C. When Christians are raised from death, our hearts will _____ because Jesus has taken away our sin _____.

II. Different people respond to sin differently:

   A. Some people feel _____ about their _____.

   B. Some people confidently believe their _____ _____ outweigh their sin.

   C. Some people live in _____ _____ over sin in themselves, in others, or in the world.

   D. Christians feel _____over sin in and around them. So, they _____ to the One who has done something about it.

III. When your heart _____ under the weight and pain of sin, _____ in the resurrection.

IV. As we fix our hopes on our future resurrection because of Jesus, our _____ over sin will give way to _____ to God for the gift of His Son.